0800. RESEARCH COMMITTEES

There are 28 Subject Research Committees in 46th Indian Social Science Congress. Each Research Committee has two chairperson (one local and one outstation), two convenors (one local and outstation) and 15-25 members from all over India. Details are given on page 28-44. Each Research Committee appraises and attempts to integrate current research and theory through deliberations on research papers, Seminar/Symposia/Colloquia/Workshops/Special lectures/ ad-hoc group discussions on themes of greater theoretical and methodological significance. Major objectives of each Research Committee are: (a) to appraise the quality of research and problems associated with it, (b) discover newer theory and method, (c) contribute to improvement of education and research and (d) to bring out publication of papers in all Indian languages in order to fill-in the existing void and thereby create necessary conditions for flowering of science in India that is liberating.

Since focal theme of the XLVI Indian Social Science Congress is '75 Years of Swaraj India', each Research Committee may identify themes related to it and hold seminars/symposia lectures for reviewing 'Current Research and Theory's of 15-30 years of research in its domain. #### 02. Context

India became free and independent from the British rule on August 15, 1947 after prolonged struggles for liberation from slavery after getting split into two countries-India and Pakistan by the British. Soon it will complete 75 Years of its independence. Seventy Five Years is a long time in the life of the nation and its people. It is a moment of great joy as well as reflection. The Government of India has rightly nicknamed it as ‘Amrit Mahotsava’ (Great Festival of Nector). What is expected from all sections of peoples of India is (a) to enjoy the celebration and (b) reflect over our achievements, successes and failures during past 75 years on the path of Swaraj with a view to learning lessons and working out course correction in order to accelerate the processes of establishment of true Swaraj. Indian Social Science Academy has resolved to join the celebration of Amrit Mahotsava through scientific reflections on successes and failures of our people in making Swaraj India a truly Swaraj India. What is a matter of joy is Bharathidasan University has extended its wholehearted and unconditional support to the Indian Social Science Academy in its endeavour to focus the deliberations of the 46th Indian Social Science Congress on ‘75 Years of Swaraj India’. ISSA looks forward for wholehearted unconditional support from all universities, colleges, research institutions, National Science Academies, Subject Associations, Farmers Associations, Trade Unions, NGOs, Industry, Commerce and Economics Association, Central and State Governments in its mission of scientific reflection without any prejudice.

At the dawn of independence, our leaders had resolutely decided that through state activities, the basic needs of the people could be provided within a short period contrary to the vision of M.K. Gandhi who reiterated that the transformative process of Indian society could be achieved through a conscientization and participatory process of the people. He firmly believed that the existing, Indian Social and economic crisis could be solved only through the participation of the people and not by the sole work of the state. Public institutions and the people have been driven to take guidance from the Constitution of India to regulate themselves while involving themselves in development initiatives and activities. Giving meaning to independence to the nation and people was more difficult and complex as Indian society was afflicted with a heavy hangover of the past and community practices that are antithetical to democracy and its core principle of equality. It is a pity that many could not realize that India inherited a rich cultural and civilizational values over centuries which could be harnessed to reconstruct the Indian society. The industrialization, modernization, westernization and now globalization have completely undermined the native initiatives and thereby India could not harness the power of the masses. Yet the growth of the public institutions expanded beyond proportion and their schematic activities have moved in an unstoppable way thereby India has successfully reduced poverty to some extent and created a battalion of beneficiaries and petitioners instead of creating honourable citizens with huge responsibilities. The above paradoxical positions created an impression among many of the intellectuals and political leaders that the sustainability of the Indian nation is always a question. Yet India stands in the comity of nations as a force to reckon with. The state market democracy and society have been vibrant and active by interacting with each other. Yet the major question remains unanswered. Has the Indian state through its institutional authority and actions regulated themselves and regulated the market forces to perform their duties and responsibilities to enable the people of India and more specifically the poor to lead a decent dignified human life. It is to be noted here that the Indian state established food security for 80 crores people through the public distribution system (PDS) by providing ration free of cost despite the economy achieving 8% economic growth. In the above backdrop, we celebrate 75 years of its march through “Amrit Mahotsava”.

In the seventy-five years of democratic governance in India, it has witnessed two models of economic growth and addressed the development needs of the people through centralized plans. The state led and state and market led economic development models have not touched upon the poor substantially and hence the conscious economic advisors to the government declared that both state and market failed in their promises. The key question arises as to what extent the achieved economic growth has been distributed consciously to the needy to enable them to lead a decent human life with dignity. An assessment of the development that has taken place in science, technology, politics, governance, administration, economy, food production, environment, ecology, health, education, quality of life between 1947 and 2022 has to be done by scientific investigation. To move further, multilateral, bilateral and our government agencies have invested huge resources to collect data on the conditions of the people and the planet in the world. Substantial data have been collected, analysed and published in the form of reports. Huge data are on their respective portals without any analysis. The above data can be analysed by the scholars to understand the reality of the society. The published reports such as Antyodya survey report 2018, Caste census report 2011, Human Development Report, Climate Change Report, World Inequality Report, National Family Health Survey, World Hunger Report, NCAER Household Survey Report, CSDS Survey Report on Democracy, Constitution Review Committee Report, Centre-State Relations Committee Reports, Administrative Reform Commission Reports, Devolution Report, Vohra Committee Report and a few of the committee reports will help us to make a thorough analysis of the conditions of the people and the environment in which they live.

Against the above backdrop, the scientific community has a responsibility to investigate the issues pertinent to major achievements and failures in mitigating the problem of the people and suggest ways and means to move forward in reducing the plight of the people. To perform the above the investigation has to start analysing the relationship among state, market, and society and its implications on the planet. In the investigation process researchers, while touching upon the milestone in the transformative process of the Indian society, it is necessary to identify the loopholes in the process to perform policy advocacy. From the above way forward has to be suggested to move further in the journey of development. Thus it is proposed to focus the deliberations of the 46th Indian Social Science Congress on the wide gamut of the transformative process of the people and their institutions in the last 75 years in India on '75 years of Swaraj India'.

03. Concept of Swaraj

British ruled India from 1757 to 1947. Concept of Swaraj (Self-rule) evolved during the British rule. First, 'Freedom is our birth right' by Lokmanya Balgangadhar Tilak defined the major parameters of Swaraj. The struggle from the British Colonial rule contributed to further refinement of the concept of Swaraj. Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi, was, the first to define it in his book 'Hind Swaraj' (1908) which was banned in 1910 by the British colonial rule. With passage of time Swaraj became alternative of State-rule. Freedom, equality, fraternity, cooperation not competition, collective ownership and not private ownership, truth, non-violence, love, stateless rule, etc. became the defining parameters of 'Swaraj'. Finally, 'democracy' replaced 'Swaraj' on the eve of British departure from India on August 15, 1947. What the British succeeded is they divided India into India and Pakistan on communal parameters, then constituted a constituent assembly for drafting the constitution. India declared itself as Democratic Republic on November 26, 1950 after approval of the constitution. Thus, independent India became Democratic Republic of India, by declaring Peoples of India as the sovereigns of India in following manner:

"We, the people of India....."

Thus, democracy became synonymous to 'Swaraj', blurring the distinction between the two. Peoples of India were promised self-rule (Swaraj) through the process of election after every 5 years. Swaraj cannot be created by the state machinery, it has to be achieved through a process of mobilization and participation of people. Acharya Vinoba Bhave had prepared a document "Swaraj Sastra" endorsed by M.K.Gandhi. In an independent country, how the liberated mass has to transform themselves and take responsibility to regulate themselves and participate in the governance and development process have been explained in the small document. It is to be noted that up to 1980 people have been mobilised consistently for party politics but never they have been mobilised for development. After 1990 they have been made the active consumer and passive spectators of the politics. Further the whole of vote bank politics and the franchise have been made as tradable commodities. After 1991, on the one hand globalization was initiated, on the other hand, decentralization was promoted through amending the constitution of India. Further development has been made as a right. Series of rights have been conferred on the poor and the marginalized. Yet the question is whether the enabling conditions have been created for the poor to claim their entitlements as rights. It is imperative on the part of the researchers to investigate into the functions of the state, market and the society and thereby find the solution to the existing crises.

04. Questions

Any scientific inquiry or reflection on 75 Years of Swaraj India demands objective answers to following three questions:

1. What was India prior to and on the eve of its independence on August 15, 1947?
2. What is Swaraj of India today after 75 Years?
3. What will Swaraj India be tomorrow or in near future?

Scientist's attempts to seek answers of these three questions shall raise hundreds and thousands of questions. Validity of answer shall depend upon rigour and depth of scientific inquiry/exploration and scientists conscious efforts to free their thoughts and actions from politics, religion and their social prejudices. Task is, indeed, formidable and risky. What is crucial is discovery of correct dominant and dormant processes and structures prior to and during 75 Years of Swaraj.

08. Approach

Disciplinary, Multi-disciplinary, Trans-disciplinary, conventional and community based participatory research methods and tools can be used in an innovative way beyond boundaries to critically analyse the issues of the people and suggest solutions to the problems of the people.

Deliberations on '75 Years of Swaraj India' can be organised in following mode:

- (a) Pre-Congress Nation-wide Seminar/Symposia/Group discussions.
- (b) During the XLVI ISSC in 8-plenaris, 5-special/public lectures/interdisciplinary deliberations in 28 subjects Research Committees and 21 interdisciplinary Thematic Panels and Task Force.
- (c) Post XLVI ISSC nation-wide seminar/symposia/group discussions. Post-XLVI ISSC deliberations may be continued for two-three years.

In this Congress, apart from the researcher's and scientist's presentations and plenary lectures, representatives from political parties, civil society organisations, media, industrial groups, farmer's associations will be invited to present their views, perceptions and perspectives on the above theme. Before the annual Congress, there will be a pre-congress symposium on different subjects on the theme of the annual Congress. The pre-congress symposium would be conducted in various research and higher learning institutions. All academic deliberations will be published in the form of occasional papers/monographs/books in all Indian languages through reputed Indian publishers.

09. Proposal

The Indian Social Science Academy (ISSA) has set up National Academic Advisory Committee for enabling it to formulate appropriate issues, help identify eminent scientists, thinkers, policy planners, social activists, etc. It has also constituted 28 subjects Research Committees with outstation and local chairpersons, conveners, 15-30 members from all over India. Bharathidasan University has constituted an Organising Committee under the chairmanship of its Vice-chancellor for organisation planning. ISSA has also requested all the Vice-chancellors/Directors to extend their active support in planning and organising local/regional seminars/symposia in local language. All members of ISSA too have been requested to organise one or twolocal level seminars/symposia. One of the Vice-Presidents have been put in charge of Organising State-wise deliberations in cooperation with respective Governments. Another Vice-President is entrusted to interact with all political parties, national and regional and invite them to put their appraisal of 75 Years of Swaraj India in writing. A two-three day national deliberations will be held in Vigyan Bhavan, New Delhi. Government of India will be requested to facilitate by providing appropriate logistic and financial support. A conference of all Vice-chancellors/Directors/Advisors too may be held. All these are very difficult but very important for evolving scientific knowledge, theory and methods for reshaping the future of Swaraj India.

The deliberations may continue for next two or three years. Such deliberations have never been held in any country in the past. However, ISSA did organise one deliberation during the Golden Jubilee of Swaraj India. Result is published in book on 'Fifty Years of Freedom of India: State, Nation and People'.

What stands in the way of such a gigantic task is huge financial resource which ISSA doesn't have. It is, however, hoped that the State and Central Governments, philanthropists, big and small industries and peoples in general would extend their support to ISSA. If it so happens results will be highly satisfying to all Indians irrespective of their Class-Caste-Creed-Gender-Region and if acted upon Swaraj India may once again become the wonder that India was.

10. Publications

It is proposed to bring out as many volumes or at least a few volumes of selected papers in all Indian languages for enabling the people to know and act as they wish to create Swaraj India. All volumes in the electronic form in the website of the ISSA in a downloadable form on a payment basis by avoiding the print form with the perspective of environmental protection.

BHARATHIDASAN UNIVERSITY

Bharathidasan University established in February 1982, was named after the great revolutionary Tamil Poet, Bharathidasan (1891-1964). The motto of the University "We will create a brave new world" has been framed from Bharathidasan's poetic words "புதியதோர் உலகம் செய்வோம்". The University endeavours to be true to such a vision by creating in the region a brave new world of academic innovation for social change.

The University's main Campus was initially located in a sprawling area of over 1000 acres in Palkalaiperur. However, as years passed on, the South Campus at Palkalaiperur with the available infrastructure was donated to the newly started Anna University of Technology. Very recently, another portion of the land has been allotted to the Indian Institute of Management (IIM), Tiruchirappalli. Also, the University has a downtown campus at Khajamalai, which housed originally the Autonomous Post-Graduate Centre of the University of Madras at Tiruchirappalli. In addition to the administrative complex, which includes the Vice-Chancellor's Secretariat, Registrar's Office, Finance and Examination offices, most of the academic departments and research laboratories are located in the main Palkalaiperur Campus. Among the academic units in the Palkalaiperur Campus are Schools of Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, Life Sciences, Basic Medical Sciences, Geosciences, Social Sciences, Marine Sciences and the Schools of Languages. In addition, the Campus also has the Central Library, University Informatics Centre, Hostels, Staff Quarters, Health Centre, Canteen and others. The downtown campus has the Departments of Social Work, Computer Science, the Centre for Remote Sensing, the UGC-Human Resource Development Centre (Formerly UGC-Academic Staff College) and others. Besides these, the Bharathidasan Institute of Management popularly known as BIM (adjudged as one of the top business schools in the country) is located within the BHEL premises, a public sector undertaking at Tiruverumbur.

The University has totally 4 Faculties, 16 Schools, 37 Departments and 29 Specialized Research Centres. There are 263 faculty members catering to 2564 students and scholars in the University. The University Departments/Schools are offering 151 programmes including 40 PG programmes in M.A., M.Sc. and M.Tech. The above programmes are conducted under the Choice Based Credit System (CBCS) in Semesters: 31 M.Phil., 33 Ph.D., 19 P.G. Diploma, 11 Diploma and 10 Certificates. The University's supporting staff strength is 457. In addition to the regular teaching programmes in the Departments and Schools, the University under its Distance Education mode is conducting 15 UG and 26 PG programmes. All the UG and PG programmes are conducted under non-semester system and MCA and MBA programmes are conducted under semester system along with the regular programmes. The MCA and MBA programmes conducted under this mode are very popular.

The Indian Social Science Academy (ISSA when abbreviated) is the first National Science Academy of independent Democratic Republic of India and fourth in chronicle order. The other three National Science Academies—Indian National Science Academy (INSA), Indian Academy of Sciences (IAS) and National Science Academy of India (NSAI) were born in British India. ISSA was born, 48 years ago, on August 15, 1974 at University of Allahabad in an assembly of young scientists. August 15, 1974 symbolizes a beginning of an altogether new science reflecting democratic values needs, aspirations, creative urges / potentialities, history, culture and traditions of peoples of India. Its name was carefully chosen for reflecting the true meaning and function of science. The setting up of the Indian Social Science Academy also heralded a beginning of a new movement for unity of science of Nature-Humans-Society by forging unity among all branches of science. Many described it as a barometer of science and society in India, in particular and world in general. In more than one sense ISSA is a unique body in the whole world. Today the Indian Social Science Academy is unique among all Science Academies in the world as it brings all subjects of science under one umbrella.

Science means objective knowledge of non-living and living things / objects and knowledge means answer to questions ‘what’, ‘how’ and ‘why’, about a thing / object. The word ‘Nature’ connotes all forms of objects / things / matter including humans and societies. Nature-Humans-Society form one single continuum. So division of science into physics, chemistry, biology, environment, ecology, agriculture, medical, social, historical etc., is artificial and all such divisions provide partial objective knowledge of Nature-Humans-Society. Unity of Science of Nature-Humans-Society, therefore, is necessary for having correct and full understanding of Nature-Human-Society science. Thus, viewed science is unitary as well as uniting.

The Science as an objective knowledge of non-living and living objects / things / matter is produced through collective mental and physical labour of men and women. What is the result of collective labour is termed as social and what is social is public and not private. Science, therefore, is social. It springs in society comprising men and women. Because it is social it has social functions. It has the prime role in enabling men and women to enjoy higher quality of material, social and cultural life in harmony with Nature. However, all such social functions of science filter through different groups in the society because of which one doesn’t find one-to-one relationship between science and conditions of all men and women of all societies. Humans’ inability to create a science-based society is well reflected in modern societies all over the world.

The Indian Social Science Academy seeks to discover, develop and disseminate science of Nature-Humans-Society in Indian conditions in particular, and world conditions in general, with a mission to build a new Democratic Republic of India few world over where there is no hunger, no poverty, no unemployment, no illiteracy, no disease, no bigotry, no superstitions, no communalism, no casteism and no discrimination of any form and where all men, women and children enjoy equally good quality of material, social, cultural and spiritual life in harmony with Nature without any kind of fear of violence, rape and murder. Its mission in pursuing science of Nature-Human-Society is for creating an altogether new world order which is free from hunger, poverty, diseased, hatred and war and which is rooted in principles of reciprocity, equality, freedom and fraternity.

‘Love to All, Prejudice None’ is the Philosophy of Science which guides all scientific pursuits of ISSA. ISSA urges all scientists to pursue science without politics.

Founders of the Indian Social Science Academy thought that science can benefit the peoples of a given society only when it is taught, researched and communicated in their own language. Communication of scientific research and science education in people’s own language, therefore, is key to the unfolding of creative potentialities of peoples and benefiting them. Unfortunately, even after 75 years of independence science in India is communicated through English. The end result is peoples of India who fund all scientific research are deprived of its benefits. The creativity in science in India is continuously declining. The Indian Social Science Academy., therefore, seeks to change it by creating necessary conditions for communication of scientific research and science education in Indian languages involving publication of research journals, monographs, books, etc., in all Indian languages.

All branches of science as mentioned below constitute the Indian Social Science Academy:

1. Agricultural Science 2. Anthropology, 3. Archaeology, History and Culture, 4. Biological or Life Science, 5. Biotechnology, 6. Chemical Science, 7. Commerce, 8. Communication And Journalism, 9. Computer Science, 10. Earth Science (Oceanic Sc. Marine Sc., Atmospheric Science etc)and Planetary Science, 11. Ecological And Environmental Science, 12. Economics, 13. Education, 14. Management Science, 21. Mathematics And Statistics, 22. Medical And Health Science, 23. Philosophy, 24. Physics, 25. Political Science, 26. Psychology, 27. Social Work, 28. Sociology

Besides, policy planners, development agents and social activists having concern for science-based pursuits also find welcome place in the Indian Social Science Academy. Thus the Indian Social Science Academy is all embracing and all encompassing within the framework of science.

The Indian Social Science Academy pursues the following activities for realizing its goal:
